

Forging an Unrivaled Union.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHICAGO | MIAMI NOVEMBER 19, 2024

Sperling & Slater and Kenny Nachwalter announce their upcoming merger to form a premier antitrust and business litigation firm.

In a groundbreaking move set to redefine the landscape of antitrust and complex business litigation, we proudly announce that the official merger will take place on December 1, 2024, forming Sperling Kenny Nachwalter. After decades of working side-by-side, this union will solidify our position as the unparalleled choice for handling the most sophisticated legal matters nationwide. What does the merger offer our clients?

An Unrivaled Authority

Sperling Kenny Nachwalter will stand as a powerhouse in business litigation and remain unparalleled in antitrust. With a legacy of success spanning decades, we are nationally renowned for our complex litigation capabilities. We have successfully handled antitrust cases longer than just about anyone in the industry. If there's a highly complex matter out there, good chance we've seen it before. Our national reputation is backed by a best-in-class legal perspective and a roster of elite clients who trust us when everything is on the line.

An Unrivaled Impact

Our stunning record of success in the industry's most formidable cases speaks for itself. From coast to coast, we seek and secure winning solutions for a prestigious roster of clients. Our unique experience, judgment, and approach consistently deliver remarkable victories and outcomes. Sperling Kenny Nachwalter will stand squarely at the summit of antitrust excellence—there is no one out there quite like us.

An Unrivaled Philosophy

We focus on understanding the business interests of our clients, and we work to advance those interests efficiently. It is our skill, experience, and relationships that allow us to uniquely meet this goal and help our clients to unlock new opportunities.
